EL, LOS, ME, NOS, SE THE LITTLE WORDS which one, and where it goes:

1. Before a noun — articles the / a — they agree with the noun

	SINGULAR	PLURAL	SINGULAR	PLURAL
masculine	el libro	los libros	un libro	unos libros feminine	la casa	las casas	una casa	unas casas the	the	a	some

el café · la música · los perros · las llaves a + el → al (voy al cine) · de + el → del (el coche del profesor)

2. Before the verb — me, te, le, nos, os, les to or for someone — this is the gustar set me	to me	nos	to us

te	to you	os	to you all le	to him / her / you (usted)	les	to them

Nos gusta este restaurante.
lit. this restaurant pleases us → we like this restaurant Nos gustan los restaurantes. the verb agrees with the thing liked, never with you: one thing → gusta, several → gustan A mis amigos les gusta la música. naming the person needs both halves: a + person, and the pronoun still stays · les matches the people, gusta matches la música

3. Before the verb — lo, la, los, las the thing itself: it, him, her, them

me	me	nos	us
te	you	os	you all
lo / la	him, it (m.) / her, it (f.)	los / las	them (m. / f.)

¿Ves el libro? — Sí, lo veo. = I see it ¿Tienes las llaves? — Sí, las tengo. = I have them it replaces a noun you already said, and it copies that noun's gender and number

4. Before the verb — me, te, se, nos, os, se back on yourself: reflexive verbs me	myself	nos	ourselves te	yourself	os	yourselves se	himself / herself	se	themselves

Me levanto a las siete. = I get (myself) up Se llama Pierre. = he calls himself Pierre = his name is Nos acostamos tarde. = we go to bed late

5. The same word, two jobs look at what comes next los libros los + noun = the books · it's an article los veo los + verb = I see them · it's a pronoun

6. Where the little word sits never after the conjugated verb

Me gusta el café. · Lo veo. · Se llama Ana. — straight before the verb No me gusta. · No lo veo. — after no, still before the verb Quiero verlo. = Lo quiero ver. — with an infinitive, either stuck on the end or out in front Voy a hacerlo. = Lo voy a hacer. — same with ir a + infinitive le and les are for the person, lo / la / los / las for the thing: le doy el libro (I give him the book) vs lo doy (I give it). se also stands in for le / les before lo: se lo doy = I give it to him.
