50 MOST USED SPANISH VERBS

in the pretérito perfecto — part 1 of 2:

THE WHOLE TENSE IN ONE RULE

haber + participio

Only haber changes. The participle is one frozen form — it never agrees with anybody and it never stem-changes, so volver gives vuelto but encontrar gives encontrado, not encuentrado.

CONJUGATE ONLY HABER — THEN ADD THE PARTICIPLE, UNCHANGED

yo	tú	él / ella	nosotros	vosotros	ellos	+ participio
he	has	ha	hemos	habéis	han

-ar → -ado
hablar → hablado · jugar → jugado

-er · -ir → -ido
comer → comido · vivir → vivido

vowel + -ído
leer → leído · oír → oído

Nine verbs ignore all of this: abierto · dicho · escrito · hecho · muerto · puesto · roto · visto · vuelto. That is the complete list — everything else follows the three rules on the left.

Ser
to be

→ sido

Siempre ha sido así.
It has always been like this.

Estar
to be

→ estado

¿Has estado en España?
Have you been to Spain?

Tener to have → tenido

He tenido un día largo.
I have had a long day.

Haber
there to be

→ habido

Ha habido un problema.
There has been a problem.

Hacer to do / make

→ hecho
IRREGULAR

¿Qué has hecho hoy?
What have you done today?

Ir to go

→ ido

He ido al médico.
I have been to the doctor.

Venir
to come

→ venido

No ha venido nadie.
Nobody has come.

Querer
to want

→ querido

Siempre he querido aprender.
I have always wanted to learn.

Poder to be able to → podido

No he podido dormir.
I have not been able to sleep.

Saber
to know (facts)

→ sabido

Siempre lo he sabido.
I have always known it.

Conocer
to know (people)

→ conocido

He conocido a su hermana.
I have met his sister.

Gustar
to like

→ gustado

Me ha gustado mucho.
I liked it a lot.

Hablar
to speak

→ hablado

Hemos hablado con el jefe.
We have spoken to the boss.

Comer
to eat

→ comido

Hoy he comido en casa.
Today I have eaten at home.

Vivir
to live

→ vivido

He vivido aquí dos años.
I have lived here two years.

Trabajar
to work

→ trabajado

Esta semana hemos trabajado mucho.
We have worked a lot this week.

Necesitar
to need

→ necesitado

Nunca he necesitado ayuda.
I have never needed help.

Llevar
to carry / wear

→ llevado

¿Quién ha llevado las llaves?
Who has taken the keys?

Poner to put → puesto

IRREGULAR

He puesto la mesa.
I have set the table.

Ver
to see

→ visto
IRREGULAR

¿Has visto esta película?
Have you seen this film?

Decir
to say

→ dicho
IRREGULAR

Me ha dicho que sí.
He has said yes to me.

Dar to give

→ dado

El médico me ha dado una receta.
The doctor has given me a prescription.

Salir
to go out

→ salido

Ha salido en las noticias.
It has been on the news.

Dormir
to sleep

→ dormido

No he dormido bien.
I have not slept well.

Buscar to look for → buscado

Te he buscado por todas partes.
I have looked for you everywhere.

Nothing may come between haber and the participle. Ya he comido or he comido ya — never he ya comido.
Pronouns go in front of haber, not after it: me he levantado, lo he visto, no te he oído.

50 MOST USED SPANISH VERBS

in the pretérito perfecto — part 2 of 2:

THE WHOLE TENSE IN ONE RULE

haber + participio

Only haber changes. The participle is one frozen form — it never agrees with anybody and it never stem-changes, so volver gives vuelto but encontrar gives encontrado, not encuentrado.

CONJUGATE ONLY HABER — THEN ADD THE PARTICIPLE, UNCHANGED

yo	tú	él / ella	nosotros	vosotros	ellos	+ participio
he	has	ha	hemos	habéis	han

-ar → -ado
hablar → hablado · jugar → jugado

-er · -ir → -ido
comer → comido · vivir → vivido

vowel + -ído
leer → leído · oír → oído

Nine verbs ignore all of this: abierto · dicho · escrito · hecho · muerto · puesto · roto · visto · vuelto. That is the complete list — everything else follows the three rules on the left.

Encontrar to find

→ encontrado

No he encontrado las gafas.

I have not found my glasses.

Perder
to lose

→ perdido

He perdido el tren.

I have missed the train.

Traer
to bring

→ traído

¿Has traído el libro?

Have you brought the book?

Beber to drink

→ bebido

Solo he bebido agua.

I have only drunk water.

Tocar
to touch / play

→ tocado

Nunca he tocado la guitarra.

I have never played the guitar.

Volver
to come back

→ vuelto

IRREGULAR

Ha vuelto a casa.

He has come back home.

Empezar
to start

→ empezado

Ya hemos empezado.

We have already started.

Jugar
to play (games)

→ jugado

Hoy he jugado al pádel.

Today I have played padel.

Pensar
to think

→ pensado

Lo he pensado mucho.

I have thought about it a lot.

Pedir
to ask for / order

→ pedido

Hemos pedido la cuenta.

We have asked for the bill.

Correr
to run

→ corrido

He corrido diez kilómetros.

I have run ten kilometres.

Nadar
to swim

→ nadado

Esta mañana he nadado.

I have swum this morning.

Llamar
to call

→ llamado

Mis padres han llamado dos veces.

My parents have called twice.

Llegar
to arrive

→ llegado

Esta mañana hemos llegado tarde.

We arrived late this morning.

Mirar to look at → mirado

Lo he mirado en internet.

I have looked it up online.

Creer
to believe

→ creído

Nunca lo he creído.

I have never believed it.

Aprender
to learn

→ aprendido

He aprendido mucho español.

I have learnt a lot of Spanish.

Oír
to hear

→ oído

No te he oído.

I did not hear you.

Seguir
to follow / keep on

→ seguido

He seguido tu consejo.

I have followed your advice.

Leer
to read

→ leído

He leído dos capítulos.

I have read two chapters.

Pasar
to happen / spend

→ pasado

¿Qué ha pasado?

What has happened?

Dejar to leave / let → dejado

He dejado las llaves en casa.

I have left the keys at home.

Quedar
to stay / meet up

→ quedado

Me he quedado en casa.

I have stayed at home.

Parecer to seem

→ parecido

Me ha parecido bien.

It seemed fine to me.

Deber must / to owe

→ debido

No he debido hacerlo.

I should not have done it.

After haber the participle is frozen; after estar it agrees. He roto la pantalla — who did it. La pantalla está rota — the state it is in.

In Spain this is the tense for hoy, esta semana, este año, ya, todavía no, alguna vez, nunca. For ayer or a finished date, use the indefinido.

Pretérito perfecto
Rows 1–4 = the 20 core A1 verbs